

APPLICATION FOR ASSIGNED TIME FOR EXCEPTIONAL SERVICE

Faculty (including librarians, coaches, and counselors) are eligible to apply for up to three (3) WTUs for exceptional service to students conducted in 2022/2023 or planned for 2023/2024.

Per the Collective Bargaining Agreement (20.37), "Exceptional service awards are intended to recognize faculty who have a demonstrated commitment to working on issues faced by our diverse student population. Assigned time from this pool should be awarded to faculty for mentoring, advising, and outreach, to support underserved, first-generation, and / or underrepresented students and other practices in support of such students, including those caused by cultural taxation. This support includes but is not limited to:

- Development and implementation of high-impact educational practices
- Curricular redesign intended to improve student access and success
- Service to the department, college, university or community that goes significantly beyond the normal expectations of all faculty
- Assignment to courses where increases in enrollment have demonstrably increased workload
- Other extraordinary forms of service to students
