

J-1 SCHOLAR ORIENTATION QUIZ & CERTIFICATION

Instructions

- 1) View the J-1 Scholar Orientation for San Diego State University online at: <https://youtu.be/YKRzZBxFo0E>;
- 2) Complete this quiz based on the information provided in the presentation;
- 3) Sign and date the certification section at the bottom of the page; and
- 4) Submit this quiz with signed certification via email to Christinejoy Sampankanpanich at csampan@sdsu.edu within 7 days of receiving the Mandatory J-1 Scholar Orientation email.

IMPORTANT: Failure to complete the J-1 scholar orientation and quiz may result in the termination of your J-1 program as well as jeopardize any possibility of participation in the SDSU J-1 program in the future.

-
1. True or False: J-1 scholars may enroll in classes while at SDSU.
True
False
 2. True or False: My J-2 dependents do not need health insurance coverage while in the US.
True
False
 3. What is the maximum program duration for a J-1 scholar in the Short-Term Scholar category?
1 month
6 months
1 year
5 years
 4. How far in advance do you have to notify Faculty Advancement of any planned international travel?
Day of travel
Day before travel
At least 2 weeks before travel
You do not need to notify Faculty Advancement of any planned international travel
 5. The Two-Year Home Residency Requirement is determined by:
Government funding
Exchange Visitor Skills List
Pursuing medical education or training
All of the above

I certify that I have completed the J-1 Scholar Orientation for SDSU. As a J-1 scholar, I understand what is required of me and will follow the J-1 Exchange Visitor Program rules and regulations to the best of my ability.

Print Name _____

Signature: _____

Today's Date: _____